BLOOD HAS BEEN PRICE OF FREEDOM

DEMOCRACY HAS BEEN BOUGHT BY WAR, SAYS MILLER.

HONOR MARTIAL HEROES

Decoration Day Is Generally Observed in Maryville—Many Flags are Displayed.

Decoration Day was generally observed in Maryville yesterday. Most of the business houses were closed throughout the day and all from 2:30 until 4 o'clock, during the exercises on the courthouse lawn. Flags were displayed throughout the business and residence section of the city.

Yesterday morning, the American Legion, Battery C and Veterans of Foreign Wars went to the various cemeteries where they decorated the graves of fallen comrades. Services were held at each cemetery.

Immediately after the address, the Veterans of Foreign Wars performed a symbolic military funeral ceremony. This was to represent the passing of the dead of all wars in the past. Miss Margaret Davison, recently elected as an honorary member of the V. F. W., read the regulation funeral ceremony in the absence of the Rev. Joseph A. Cooper, Chaplain of the local post.

"We are not met here to glorify war, nor the game of war," said Professor Harry Miller in his Memorial Day address on "The Price of Democracy," yesterday afternoon, "but have come to pay tribute to those heroes who, in the times of crises in our nation's history, saved us through war from disaster and defeat. We have met to honor their valor and praise their patriotism.

"It is a time for memory and for tears," he continued, "The conflict of yesterday sounds in our ears and the alarm of war resounds through the nation. It is the battle call of '61, fresh, vigorous, enthusiastic. We can see you men of the Grand Army in the flush of patriotic and young manhood, bidding your loved ones 'good bye' at the home gate where those most dear have come as a final rallying place. We can see you grasp the trembling hand of an aged father, kiss the pallid face of a fond mother, embrace with tenderness the faithful sister, and with proud and firm step march away under the glorious flag, under the banner of the freest Republic in the world—march away to fields of glory.

"Democracy Must Live"

"We see you in the fury of the battle charge, wounded, neglected, pouring your blood from honorable wounds among pines and hemlocks, not dreading death but regretting that you have not been able to take the objective with your comrades. We can see you do all of this for the great Republic in order that the democracy which our fathers had founded would not perish but should live glorously, live nobly, live honorably because of your sacrifice.

"Today, your thinned ranks bear mute testimony of your last heroic days—when the nation shall bow in solemn grief at your tragic passing. May every flag of the Republic be lowered when that day shall come.

Honor Veterans of '98

"And you, veterans of 1898, living and dead, we memorialize you today and remember your cheering response to the call of war. We behold you marshalled for the fray, brave, chivalrous, and whole-heartedly and unselfishly give your service for the freedom of an oppressed people and our own. We can see those brave heroes of the see, sail into Manila Bay that early April morning, passing dangerous sunken mines. When the Spanish fleet is sighted, we can hear the quiet command of Admiral George Dewey, "Fire when you are ready, Gridley." And in less than one hour, the great ships of the Spanish fleet were at the bottom of the sea, without the loss of a single American life.

"Brave men, all of you. Honor to your memory! The nation today is paying its tribute of words and flowers and tears in every hamlet and village and city. Long may your memory survive in the hearts of your countrymen.

Tribute To the Khaki

"And you, men of the khaki, who in our own memorial so gallantly defended the flag against a foreign foe. Today, the nation's tribute is laid at your feet. We see you in the holo-

Becomes Supervisor of Instrumental Music in City Schools—Has Done Good Work Here.

C. D. Kutschinski, instructor of instrumental music at the Conservatory of the College, and director of the Maryville Concert Band, has resigned his positions here to take the position as supervisor of instrumental music of the public schools at Winston Salem, North Carolina. Mr. Kutschinski's resignation will become effective September 1. In his new position he will organize and supervise instrumental classes, orchestras and bands in all of the city schools. Mr. Kutschinski has accomplished a splendid piece of work during his stay in Maryville. He has developed a fine College orchestra and greatly improved the Maryville Band. Concerts given by this organization last winter proved very popular. Probably the best piece of work by Mr. Kutschinski here was the organization of the Nodaway County combined bands of over a hundred pieces. Its last appearance was during Music Week.

WILL OPEN BIBLE SCHOOL TOMORROW

DAILY VACATION SCHOOL STARTS AT HIGH SCHOOL

FACULTY IS SELECTED

More Will Be Added If Enrollment Warrants It—Will Show Lantern Slides

The opening session of the third annual Daily Vacation Bible School in Maryville will be held in the Maryville High School building at 8:55 in the morning. Tomorrow will be enrollment day and a start will be made o nthe regular work of the D. V. B. S. It is important that all, who intend to come, to enroll promptly so that the final work on organizing the D. V. B. S. may be completed and the full program started Monday.

Some lantern slides will be shown in the morning as a main feature of the program. This is one new feature that has been planned for the season. One of the rooms can be darkened, and from time to time slides will be used as they can be secured. Some moving picture films may also be shown if proper films can be obtained.

The work of securing all the faculty will not be complete until enrollment day, when the number of teachers actually needed is learned. The staff this year is the strongest for any D. V. B. S. in Maryville An unusual number of experienced teachers and workers will lead the School. Among them are Mrs. C. P. Fryer, Miss Ruby Irwin, Miss Mary Sawyers, Mrs. Leonard Bosch, Miss Mabel Raines, Miss Mildred Shinabargar, Miss Lucy Allen, Miss Margaret Louise Hosmer, Miss Stella Pettigrew, and others They will also be a number of part time helpers and teachers in case of emergency, Miss Alice Peery and Miss Minnie Evans are among these.

The faculty of the College have helped much with the D. V. B. S. Miss Blanche Dow is going to advise and help in the work of dramatizing Bible stories. The recreation work will consist of drills and calesthenics, etc., and the teachers will be trained and directed by Miss Mary MacLeod of the department of physical education for women. Miss Mary Fisher, of the University of Missouri, who is here at the college during the short term and summer term, as instructor in handwork, is helping plan the craft work.

Advanced craft work will be included this season. Heretofore beaver board has been used. Now the older boys will work in wood with the coping saws, and make more complicated toys. Hammock making will be taught for the first time. Advanced craft work for the girls will consist of basket making with the paper materials or reed. There will also be sewing, and it is planned to have the older girls make a Christian Flag for the use of the School.

Because of this advance work the 12, 13, and 14 year-old boys and girls are expected to enroll in bigger numbers for the intermediate department Advanced courses of study are also here and will be taught.

The last two years the boys and girls, older than seven years, have had separate handwork, but this year they may be allowed to mingle, taking the same handwork. A number of the girls have wanted to make jointed aninals and action toys, and probably some of the boys will want to show the girls they too can make baskets, etc.

The D. V. B. S. will be organized into four departments and ten grades. The departments are kindergarten, primary junior and intermediate. The term fee will be $100. This is less than last year, and is actually less than the average cost per child. The fee was lowered because many had offered special contributions for the D. V. B. S. work. Miss Hazel Sheridan is treasurer and will receive contributions at the First National Bank.

Monday the full regular program will begin, and will include devotional exercises, music, Bible Memory Work, Bible study, recreation, handwork, and a closing assembly.

Henry Allen Gives Presidential Views

London, May 31—Henry J. Allen, former Republican governor of Kansas, told International News Service today that he believed President Harding would be a candidate for re-election. Allen denied that he would seek the nomination himself.

The Democratic nomination, in his opinion, lies between Henry Ford, Detroit automobile manufacturer and Oscar Underwood, United States senator from Alabama. Allen approved of the United States entrance into the international court. He said he thought that the people wanted a limited participation in European affairs.

END IS NEAR FOR RAIL LABOR BOARD

PENNSYLVANIA'S DEFIANCE IS THE LAST STRAW

UP TO NEW CONGRESS

Lafollette and Supporters Will Deal Death Blow—Harding Will Let It Die

Washington, May 31—The Pennsylvania Railroad's open defiance of the railway labor board, coupled with the fact that the board had apparently accepted this demand in meekness and humility, was regarded in Washington today as constituting the board's death warrant.

The official execution, according to plans now being made will take place early in the new Congress. The entire transportation problem is to be re-opened and the fight on the board will be under the direction of Senator Robert M. Lafollette.

Although the Pennsylvania's most recent disregard of the board's order is now more than a week old, the American Federation of Labor points out, that thus far the board has taken no steps to brand the officials of the Pennsylvania as "outlaws" as was done to the shopmen last summer. Nor has any appeal been published for public support in punishment of Samuel Rea, president, or his road.

The conviction that the railroad labor board is an unsuccessful experiment is held not only by labor leaders and railroad officials, but also by high administration officials. President Harding, himself, recently confided this opinion and it is understood that the administration will not stand in the way to a quick and early death of the board when the new 68th Congress sharpens its surgical knives in December.

Had Resided in Nodaway County Since 1879—Funeral This Afternoon at Son's Home

Gann, and a resident of Nodaway county since 1879, died at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at her home, 302 East Sixth street, following an illness of almost a year. Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of a son, LeGrand Gann, 335 East Fourth street. Dr. C. C. James, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated. Burial took place in Oak Hill cemetery besides the Rev. Mr. Gann, who died two years ago. The pallbearers were George B. Baker, E. F. Wolfert, J. F. Colby, John Airy, Hal Hooker and W. F. Phares.

Mrs. Gann was the last surviving member of her family. She is survived by two sons, LeGrand Gann of Maryville and L. C. Gann of Pueblo, Colo. HOUSE LEADER OF DEMOCRATS DIES

END COMES TO REP. CLAUDE KITCHEN IN NORTH CAROLINA

ILL FOR THREE YEARS

But Retained His Titular Leadership —New Democratic Leader To Be Chosen

Wilson, N. C., May 31—Representative Claude Kitchen, Democratic leader in Congress during the war period, died in a hospital here this morning after a long illness. He had been ill almost continuously for the last three years of chronic stomach and kidney ailment.

Representative Kitchen was still the titular leader of his party in the lower branch of Congress despite the fact that he never occupied the seat during the last session. So highly did the Democrats esteem him in the House that tehy refrained from electing a successor.

Kitchen was on of the members who voted against the declaration of war against Germany. He cast his negative vote with tears streaming down his face upon that memorable night of April 6, 1917, and friends led him sobbing from the floor.

Washington, May 31—The death of Representative Claude Kitchen was the cause of universal regret in Washington today. His death will necessitate the selection of a new Democratic leader of the House for the 68th Congress. During his two years illness he retained his title of Democratic leader although the duties were carried on by Representative Garrett of Tennessee and Representative Garner of Texas.

It costs just $16.65 to get drunk in Maryville—if you're caught.

William Campbell, a negro, was fined $10 and costs in police court this afternoon on a charge of being drunk. The costs were $65.65. Campbell paid the total amount.

Two men also were in police court this afternoon on a supposed charge of reckless driving. However, the person filing the complaint could not be found, and it is thought around the city hall that the two men are victims of a joke. Both were dismissed without charges being placed against them.

Senator Borah made a short visit to some of the large cities recently and on his return to Washington, reported that the Mississippi Valley was aflame with opposition to the world's court. Seantor Borah seems to possess a wonderful imaginative ability.

It begins to look like New York has a monopoly on the base ball pennants this year. For some years past they have been letting Chicago, Boston, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia in on the contest in one or the other leagues but this year they seem to have decided to hold the world series contest in New York.

Suit to Contest Will Is Filed Today

A suit was filed in the Circuit Court this afternoon by Leota I. Hewitt against Caroline Gatton, et al, in which she alleges that she is the sole living child of Emma Neal Hewitt, a daughter of Mahaley E. Neal who died last year. She seeks to contest the will of Neal who left $300 to the M. E. Church South to be used as an endowment fund, for the education of Methodist ministers and for missionary purposes of the Church. Neal also left the City of Maryville $100, the interest to be used for the relief of unfortunate persons. The plaintiff was bequeather $1.00.

Smith upon the Cuivillier Bill to repeal the Mullan-Gage prohibition enforcement act. Both wets and drys cheered the governor when he entered. He has until Sunday at midnight to sign or veto the repeal measure. Women made up over half of the vast audience and it appeared that the drys were in the majority. Clara Phillips Will Spring a Sensation

"Tiger Woman" Enroute Back to Jail, Says Escape Wasn't of Her Own Accord.

On board the "Sunset Limited" enroute to San Francisco from New Orleans, May 31: Declaring that her sensational escape from the Los Angeles County jail on December 2 was not done upon her own accord, Mrs. Clara Phillips, hammer murderess, now speeding westward to face life imprisonment in the San Quentin penitentiary, today told International News Service that her plea for a new trial will be built around that story.

The recently apprehended "tiger woman" said her long flight was because of circumstances over which she had no control and not because of her own desire for freedom.

"Since my capture in Tegucigalpa I have promised the world a sensation which will be the means of establishing my freedom. A great part of that statement will tell exactly why I climbed to freedom through the bars sawed down by Jesse Carson, with whom I made my flight," she added. Mrs. Phillips refused to divulge anything further than this. She said that her attorneys would meet her at the train in Los Angeles and plans would be placed underway then to secure her freedom.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Sipes and children of Greybull, Wyo., who are visiting relatives in Maryville, went to Kansas City this morning to spend the day. They will return for a longer visit before returning to Greybull.

Mrs. Don Heflin, who underwent an operatio nat St. Francis Hospital May 21, was able to return to her home at 922 East Fourth street yesterday.

caust of the mightiest war in the annals of time. We see you in the terrible trenches where machine gun shell, hand grenades, destroyers of the air and deadly gas, made life a hell. Bravely, courageously and as true Americans you went "over the top" for democracy. When imperialism stood at the gates of Paris, unselfishly and with awful slaughter, you turned the tide of battle and sent the Hun howling back to his trenches. Not satisfied with this, you broke through the heretofore impregnable line of Hindenburg and crushed the proud plume of autocracy. Never such a war in the world's history!

"Comrades of St. Mihiel, the Argonne, the Marne and Verdun—we honor you today! But alas, some are not here. Their graves are dotting the hillsides of France, where 50,000 crosses "row on row" are being decorated by our French friends. We shall cherish sacredly the memory of Flanders Field, where you shed precious blood for the nation's honor. We can see the outlawed submarine piercing the vitals of passenger ships sending thousands of non-combatants to their watery graves. But it is only when the shrieks of drowning Americans come to our ears, that patience exhausts itself and self-protection and respect becomes imperative. Then we can see that learned American, scholar and patriot, son of the South and typical of her chivalry, teacher and administrator—Woodrow Wilson, reading his famous war message to the Congress. The results of the war, all of us know. It sent millions to noble graves, wasted resources and imperiled the health of the near-martyr—Mr. Wilson.

Offer All To Nation

"Men in khaki, we are proud of you. You have carried on the spirit of the men in Blue. You have been true to the trust of the nation. We have left your dead comrades in poppy-blown fields. You have offered your all to the nation that gave you birth. Today, we pay our tribute of tears and flowers—emblems of the best we have. May your valor and sacrifice be ever sacred in the heart of a Republic you have lived and died to save."

A large number of persons attended the services. The Maryville band furnished music for the program. Other numbers given were as follows:

Singing of America by the audience

Prayer by the Rev. J. T. Puckett.

Reading, The order of General Logan, commander-in-chief of the Grand Army, dated May 1868, designating May 30 as Decoration Day, by Harold L. Moore.

Reading, Lincoln's Gettysburg Address—Mrs. W. D. Williams.

Memorial address, "The Price of Democracy"—Prof. Harry Miller.

Quartet, "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground"—Mrs. Fred P. Robinson, Miss Sadie Neal, John Mutz and Emery Airy.

THAT DULL ACHING.

Don't worry and complain about a bad back. Get rid of it. For weak kidneys, lame and achy backs, your neighbors recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor!

Mrs. R. Snyder, 1008 East Third St., Maryville, says: "My kidneys bothered me for some time and I had a dull pain through my back. I felt tired all the time and could not rest well at night. After using a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills the pains let up and the feeling of languor disappeared. My health improved generally." (Statement given October 2, 1912).

On March 31, 1920 Mrs. Snyder said: "Doan's Kidney Pills have cured me of kidney trouble for since I used them eight years ago I have had no return of the complaint." I wish to conform my former statement."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy — get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Snyder had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.
